Human Rights Could the decision impact negatively on individual Human Rights as enshrined in UK legislation?*	X	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	The approval from Executive of the tender pipeline for 2023/24 and delegated responsibility to the relevant Director for contract award and approval to develop and publish the new Corporate Procurement Strategy 2023-26 will ensure that the Council is being fair, open and transparent in all its formal tendering activity. It is not envisioned that this Tender Pipeline approval would negatively impact on individual Human Rights as enshrined in UK Legislation. Evidence includes analysis of performance against legislative requirements. E-tendering portal used to publish tenders and all suppliers are directed and encouraged to register on the portal which provides (this is free of charge)

* Consult the Impact Assessment further guidance appendix for details on the issues covered by each of these broad questions prior to completion.

Screening questions	Response			Evidence
Equality Could the decision result in adverse differential impacts on groups or individuals with characteristics protected in UK equality law? Could the decision impact differently on other commonly disadvantaged groups?*	x	☐	☐	The Public Sector Equality Duty (PSED) requires that when exercising its functions the Councils must have due regard to the need to:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct that is prohibited by or under this Act; • advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it; and • foster good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it. In having due regard to the need to advance equality of opportunity, the Council must consider, as part of a single equality duty: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • removing or minimising disadvantages suffered by persons who share a relevant protected characteristic that are connected to that characteristic; • taking steps to meet the needs of persons who share a relevant protected characteristic that are different from the needs of people who do not share it; and • encouraging people who share a protected characteristic to participate in public life or in any other activity in which participation is low. The Tender Pipeline 2023/24 and Corporate Procurement Strategy 2023-26 is in place to ensure that the Council is fair, open and transparent in all its tendering activity. The Tender Pipeline will ensure fair access to procurement opportunities for all. There are no concerns that these changes could result in adverse differential impacts on groups or individuals. Evidence includes analysis of performance against legislative requirements.
