

EXEMPTIONS

Properties that are exempt from requiring a licence are those that are:

1. Subject to a Prohibition Order, under Section 20 of the Housing Act 2004, that has not been suspended.
2. Business premises.
3. Houses in Multiple Occupation (HMO) that require a statutory HMO licence.
4. Tenancies for agricultural land/holdings.
5. Controlled by a local housing authority, Police authority, Fire and Rescue authority or a Health Service body.
6. Occupied solely by students undertaking a full-time course of further or higher education, and where the person managing or in control of it is the educational establishment.
7. Tenancies granted for more than 21 years and the agreement does not allow the landlord to end the tenancy earlier than the term of the lease (the property must be occupied by the original person who was granted the tenancy or members of their family).
8. The tenant is a member of the landlord's family. (The house must be the occupier's main residence. The person granting the occupancy must be the freeholder or leaseholder, which is for a period of more than 21 years. This lease must not contain a provision allowing the landlord to end the tenancy earlier than the term of the lease);
9. Tenancies or licenses granted for the occupancy of a holiday home.
10. Accommodation that the occupier shares with the landlord or licensor or a member of the landlord or licensor's family.
